UP CÍRCULO HISPÁNICO / AY 2013—2014 / VOLUME 2

SPANISH WEEK 2014

Spanish Week is coming once again!

Spanish Week is an annual event by the UP Círculo Hispánico which aims to promote the Spanish language and culture to people in the University. Aspects of the Hispanic world's culture is shown to the student body through an exhibit opened at the beginning of the week, and activities related to the theme are opened to the student body for further understanding of the theme, and of Spanish culture as well.

The theme of this year's Spanish Week is Hispanic fashion. This year, Círculo Hispánico aims to showcase modern Hispanic fashion while also drawing parallels to the traditional fashion. Be ready to see a showcase of Hispanic fashion and style during this year's Spanish Week!

Events this year include: exhibit opening, photo-essay contest, film showing, and garage sale.

We hope to see you there!

ABOUT UP CÍRCULO HISPÁNICO

UP Círculo Hispánico is a non-profit academic oriented organization under the Department of European Languages, duly recognized by the College of Arts and Letters of the University of the Philippines in Diliman.

The organization was founded in 1964 under the name of Círculo Cervantino. It became dormant during a couple of years. And in 1997, it was re-established as Círculo Hispánico.

UP Círculo Hispánico aims to promote the Spanish language and culture to students and other members of our academic institution. It serves as a venue and support group for students who wish to further their interest in the Spanish language and culture through different activities such as tutorials, exhibits, poetry readings, film showings, etc. It helps in strengthening ties among the Philippines and the Spanish-speaking countries. For years, the organization has been a tool in helping produce esteemed alumni who were and will always be instruments of change in our society and our country.
